Alicante International Airport, making it very accessible to people coming from other countries. There are also other popular tourist spots near the city, such as Benidorm and Calpe.

In addition, Finestrat is known for its beaches and nautical infrastructure. The city is located on the Mediterranean coast, which makes it an ideal destination for beach and water sports enthusiasts. There are also many cafes, restaurants and bars by the sea where you can enjoy local cuisine and beautiful views of the bay.

Despite its popularity among tourists, Finestrat still retains its historical and cultural character. In the city, you can find many ancient buildings and monuments, such as the castle and the church of Santa Maria Maggior, which reflect the rich history of the city.

Finestrat also offers excellent opportunities for rest and relaxation. The city has many parks and green areas where you can walk and enjoy the beautiful nature. There are also mountains and national parks near the city, where you can go hiking and cycling.

Overall, Finestrat is the perfect place for those looking for a convenient and comfortable life in Spain. The city offers all the necessary services and amenities, including an international school, medical centers, supermarkets, and shops. There are also a variety of cultural and sporting events such as concerts, festivals and golf tournaments.

In addition, Finestrat is very popular with foreign residents, especially the British, Germans and Scandinavians, who find it the perfect place for a winter holiday. The city has a mild and warm climate that allows you to enjoy the sun and warmth throughout the year.

Finally, it is worth noting that Finestrat has a fairly low standard of living, which makes it even more attractive for those looking for an affordable and comfortable place to live in Spain. Property prices here are also comparatively low compared to other resort towns on the Costa Blanca.

Overall, Finestrat is a wonderful choice for those looking for a comfortable place to live in Spain. The city offers great opportunities for recreation and entertainment, as well as all the necessary services and amenities that you may need for a comfortable life.
